What's New In?

Add Markup Assist to a single object in a drawing and import and incorporate feedback from multiple sources. The Markup Assistant can identify the source of a component in your drawing and automatically import any changes or new information without additional drawing steps. Save time with the new Markup Utility. Saves steps by importing and incorporating feedback from multiple sources in a single drawing, sending and tracking designs in your organization, and incorporating feedback from other users. Perform SharePoint searches for drawings by keyword. After you tag a drawing with a keyword and save it, you can search for that keyword in your SharePoint drawings. (video: 2:32 min.) Enhancements in Rendering and Printing: Save time with new color controls and enhancements to profiles. Use the new Color Manager to import color profiles into your drawings and change the color in the drawing. Use the new CMYK controls to adjust colors in your drawings. Change the value in your drawing to match your in-print and on-screen values. Export and replace existing color profiles with profile-specific colors and apply color profile changes on print and in other programs. Use the new Color Profile Manager to import and export profile-specific colors in drawings. Add color contrast to drawings with new tools and enhancements to the Style View. Add color contrast to drawings by changing the opacity and color of objects or by applying multiple colors and visual styles. Quickly preview and print drawings as PDFs. Preview and print drawings as PDFs, including any annotations, titles, shapes, or comments. Export to PDF, XPS, or JPG. Create and save drawings as PDF, XPS, and JPG files from your drawing window. Export your drawing as a link to a website or email address. New color pickers in the Print dialog allow you to preview and pick colors before printing. Enhanced Publishing and Sharing: Send links of your most recent drawings and annotate them with comments in the Comments panel. Share your drawings using the new App Links feature. Publish drawings on the Web and in your organization by creating App Links, and anyone with the link can view, comment on, and annotate the drawing from any web browser or mobile device. Save time by building links to your drawings from other applications. Easily publish drawings from your spreadsheet, PowerPoint, and word processor, and share them with
