I recorded this in a session last year as a three track single. I recorded this at a slow pace, allowing for much deep listening, and many listening sessions to sift through sound and musical ideas. It is probably my favourite of all my recent recordings as it is very contemplative, and peaceful. This was intended as a single title, and when I played it to the regular band (playing some electric stuff, as always) they all asked me to play it again at the end of the gig as a showcase for why it was my favourite of the night. With heavy guitars, organ, and beautiful electric piano its not too harsh or strange, just a very gentle sound. This was recorded using an original 1969 Mackie HR 120 DuroDome reel to reel tape recorder, a bag of vacuum tubes, my trusty Grundig 350 Watt stereo amp, and my trusty Fostex-USRPs as mic's. The "kicker" is a Fender Stratocaster, playing almost the entire recorded song, with my on-board amplifier and preamp. The pick hits the master volume which kicks in to deliver 100W to my head through my headphones, which is the only noise made during recording."Our opinion is that it is absolutely verboten to sell your prostate." Dr. Fitzgerald said. "If you do that, you might as well be dead. That's no joke." As concerns about prostate cancer increase, Dr. Fitzgerald urges men to see their urologists for regular tests, and to make sure they're getting the most up-to-date information. "Anything new in the area of prostate cancer is in the spotlight, and I think it's very important that we as men get that word out." Dr. Fitzgerald said. The National
