A: Since you now seem to have a valid URL for the version of the executable, and since you have Windows, it would be as simple as: sc svcstore.dll /delete URL: The URL: is a valid URL for a Windows executable, and since it is shorter than 473 bytes (253 for the signed one), it should work. Unfortunately, Microsoft store has several bugs in handling absolute URLs, that will not properly work. Reddit Email 0 Shares The Pope is a vocation of silence, so he is not a good place to go for information on what is going on in the Middle East, the greatest hot spot of the world. Only the Vatican announcement 'on the Vatican's behalf' that the Pope had called the heads of Israel and Syria to express his grave concern about the situation in Syria, made any sense at all on the day of his Sunday address, Oct 24th. The Pope did not go to West Bank or Gaza, of course; those are fiefdoms of Israel. Since a resolution calling for an end to the violence has not been passed in Congress and since the US is under a President who lacks the political acumen of Dwight Eisenhower, the Israeli 'apartheid' regime is given carte blanche to act as it pleases. In July, the IAF bombed Damascus and last month Israeli Prime Minister Binyamin Netanyahu visited the White House, and was very happy, having paid off all his political debts, to ask for US help in destroying the Syrian defenses. 'A twofer': Iran was rung up and al Assad 'looked like an imbecile' In addition to the veto power of the US over any UN action and the 'political' inability to 'pop up' in the UN Security Council, there is also a Bill passed in Congress, the Corker-Menendez bill, which authorizes the US to fund the NGOs accused of 'humanitarian' activities in Syria, to the tune of $65 million. The Corker/Menendez bill now awaits the signature of the US President. If Obama follows the State Department line, it is not a matter of 'if' but
