We spent most of the day running around, one place was very cool - we went down a slide that dropped you into a huge pool of water. Really neat!! We had some fun with our friends, drank some soda, and even went for a ride on their roller coaster. This was my baby girl's first time to the water park and she LOVED it! My baby boy loves the water even more than she does, and he even had fun in the pool. Great day!! We got home today and I'm not taking my boys to school tomorrow because it is the first day of my 5 year sabbatical from teaching. I'm going to have a day to myself and I plan on spending all of it baking with my mother! Tuesday, August 25, 2009 My mother and I had a great time creating this for one of the preschools
