You can do a search for "crack" and then go to the page containing that link. You will need to download that second link, unzip it, and then drag the unzipped folder to your program. You might also need to set the path to include that folder in the linkers\librarypath\debug configuration. Here is a video on how to do the same thing. This has been answered on the QTP forum. Q: Can't install to SD Card (No root permissions) I want to install the current version of Netrunner to my SD Card on my Nexus 5. I have been trying for about 2 days to do this, and I've got frustrated so I decided to ask here. I have a Rooted Android Device but I cannot seem to make the SD Card root access. I've tried some of the methods that I have found online, including following: adb shell dmesg | grep mmc Shell@fastboot oem unlock adb reboot bootloader adb reboot bootloader adb reboot bootloader adb shell mount -o rw,remount,rw /dev/block/platform/msm_sdcc.1/by-name/userdata Shell@fastboot oem unlock adb reboot adb push chroot /sdcard/android-sdk-linux/tools/chroot /tmp/chroot adb reboot adb shell su adb shell mount /system adb shell mount / adb shell mkdir /mnt/system_data adb shell mount /system adb shell chroot /mnt/system_data/system adb shell mount -o rw,remount /system adb shell chroot /system chmod 755 /system/bin/sh adb shell chroot /system chmod 755 /system/bin/su adb shell chroot /system chmod 755 /system/bin/bash adb shell chroot /system chmod 755 /system/bin/mount. 5ec8ef588b
