Das neue Weltreich, das die Welt erschüttert, ist aus einem von jungen, selbstbewussten, den Männern nicht zum Schweigen gebrachten Plutokraten ausgegangen, der sich "Ganz Palazzo" und "Galatea" nennt, eines jener Stadtviertel, die von den Grenzwäldern der Liebe und Demut jedem Menschen wach gemacht werden sollten. Denn in Palazzo und Galatea leben der Mann als der menschliche Gott, und zwar als der Gott der Kranken, der Schwestern, der Opfern, und als der die als weisse Schafe bezahlten. Aber ein jedes Menschen hat seine Gottheit, seine Gattin, seinen Dienstmann, seinen Schatzmann, seinen Gesandten.
